EXTEND GREETINGS

Distinguished Churchmen and Others Meet Cardinal Martinelli,

RECEPTION AT GONZAGA COLLEGE

Addresses by Judge Joseph Daly and Mr. Michael Byrne.

A BRILLIANT FUNCTION

nal Martinelli last night in Gonzaga Hall by the president and faculty of Gonzaga College. The authorities of the institution had issued many hundreds of invitations to prominent Catholics of Washington and the immediate vicinity, and an altogether distinguished company gathered to extend greetings to the new cardinal. The reception began at 8 o'clock, and by that hour the spacious hall was completely filled. The program arranged contained three speeches of welcome, and upon its conclusion those present were invited to the stage to meet Cardinal Martinelli. It is estimated that nearly a thousand people paid their respects. tion had issued many hundreds of invita-

Gonzaga Hall never presented a more handsome appearance. The cardinal colors of red were everywhere apparent in the elaborate decorations for the occasion. The side walls and balcony were swung with red bunting and the electric globes of innumerable incandescent lights were of red glass. On either side of the stage, of red glass. On either side of the stage, which was set with an interior cathedral scene, were large baskets of American beauty roses. The artistic effect and coloring were most striking.

Cardinal Martinelli was accompanied from the papal legation to the hall by two companies of Gonzaga Cadets and the colors hand. In the carriage with him were companies of Gonzaga Cadets and the col-lege band. In the carriage with him were Count Colacicchi of the Roman papal guard, who acted as the pope's messenger in bringing the beretta to the new cardinal; Father Marchetti and Dr. Rooker of the papal delegation. Rev. Father Fink, presi-dent of Gonzaga College, welcomed the guests at the door and accompanied them who accompanied him were greeted with protonged applause. The cardinal took up his place in the center of the stage. He were the little red miter box, the insignia of his new rank, upon his head.

Among the Guests. On the cardinal's right were seated President Fink, S. J.; Rev. John S. Conway, S. J.; Judge Joseph Daly of New York, who was to extend the greetings of that state, and William Michael Byrne of Delaware, who brought greetings from that state. On the left were seated Father Marchetti, Count Colaciechi and Edgar H. Gans of Baltimore, who brought greetings from Maryland. Count Colacicchi was attired in the green uniform of his rank and was re-splendent in gold lace and epaulets. Others splendent in gold lace and epaulets. Others who were on the stage were the members of Gonzaga faculty, Rev. M. J. Hollohan, S. J.; Rev. J. A. Hann, S. J.; J. A. Mullen, S. J.; W. M. Drumm, S. J.; F. H. Kries, S. J.; R. A. Tierney, S. and Clarence Hoke.

A pretty incident of the evening was the me extended Father Cornelius Gillespie of Philadelphia, when he appeared on the stage, and, after paying his respects to the cardinal, took his seat on the left. Father Gillespie was formerly rector of Gonzaga College, and was deservedly pop-ular with all the Catholics of the city. He was compelled to bow his acknowledg-

Judge Daly's Address.

The first speaker was Judge Joseph Daly of New York, who brought the greetings of the empire state, and spoke to the subject "America and the Religious." He spoke of the great work which has been accomplished in America by Catholics. He referred to the fact that Cardinal Martinelli was a member of the Society of the Augustinians, and said that it was the members of this order who encouraged Cocrown in the voyage which resulted in the discovery of America, and it was a Domini-can bishop who used his influence with the court to secure the desired support. "Therefore," Judge Daly declared, "it must be said that these two Catholic orders had much to do with the discovery of America. Sixteen years after the discovery the missionaries of the Dominicans, Franciscans and Augustinians had mastered the Indian tongue, and in less than 100 years the Franciscans had founded seventy con-

Judge Daly spoke most interestingly of the early efforts of the Catholic missiona-ries in America, saying that in time they traversed the entire country and pushed from sea to sea, finally sailing over the Pacific to Japan. China and the Philippines, so that it might be said the flag followed these missionaries.

Voice of Delaware.

Greetings from Delaware were next extended by Mr. William Michael Byrne, whose subject was "America and the Delegate." He spoke of Cardinal Martinelli's elevation from the office of delegate to cardinal and congratulated him most heartily. Mr. Edgar H. Gans of Baltimore was the last to speak, and his subject was most appropriate: "America and the Cardinal." After extending his congratulations and speaking of the high regard in which Car-dinal Martinelli has always been held by the people of Washington and of Maryland, Mr. Gans turned his attention to a recent article by Prof. Goldwin Smith in which something was said of a conflict between the atmosphere of American liberty and the atmosphere of the Catholic Church. Mr. Gans denounced the statement as a says to her people is to do no wrong, not to steal, or have two wives, or do murder. The American law says the same thing. "The teachings of the Catholic Church," he declared, "instead of conflicting with American institutions, is more in harmony with them than the teachings of any other religion. From the days of Carroll, the Jesuit, to Gibbons, the great archbishop of Baltimore, who is the very incarnation of the American patriot, the Catholic Church has been loyal, devoted and perfectly at home with American institutions, and she proposes to remain so.' President Fink then invited those present to pay their respects to the cardinal. The long line was fully three-quarters of an hour in passing. At the conclusion of the public reception a number of specially in-vited guests were entertained with the cardinal at supper.

She is not dangerously ill, but will take a long rest to bring her around so that she may once more take up her self-imposed tasks

DECORATION DAY.

ommander Stone Issues an Order Regarding Its Observance. Commander Israel W. Stone of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., has issued the following order in connection with the celebration of Decoration day: "The 30th of May having been established a 'Memorial Day,' and in many states, as well as in this department, a legal holiday, in order that the people generally may join in some formal observation of the day, all are morally bound to do so. Services are held in, all the cemeteries in and about Washington where ex-soldiers and sailors lie buried, and it is particularly reprehensible and unbecoming for any ex-soldier to use the time set aside for this special memorial purpose for recreation of any kind or in any direction.

"Thirty-three years ago the beautiful ceremony of strewing fragrant flowers and holding solemn service over the graves of our departed comrades was first ordered by that peerless general, John A. Logan, then commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The rules and reg-ulations of our order now require commemorative service on Memorial day, and if impressed, as we should be, by venera-tion for the heroism displayed by those who have fallen, their unselfish devotion to country, their zeal, fortitude and courage, and their great sacrifices that the union of these states might be perpetuated, we shall make this annual pilgrimage a labor of love and affection, and not an opportunity for games and hilarity.
"We cordially invite all to join us in this school of loyalty and patriotism, thus showing by our presence that in the grave there is no party, no strife. Let us re-mind all who were not participants in the great struggle which preserved the Union with all its blessings, which is so generwith all its blessings, which is so generously bequeathed to future generations, and from which victor and vanquished may equally participate, that in each of these lowly mounds that we every year remember with tokens of love and affection lie all that remains of a patriot who gave his life a willing sacrifice for the success of our righteous cause.

"Sunday memorial service will be held at the Metropolitan M. E. Church, 4th and C streets northwest, at 7:30 o'clock p.m., May 26, upon the invitation of the Rev. Dr.

On motion of Mr. A. M. NORTHEAST SUBURBAN CITIZENS.

In response to notices sent out for th purpose of forming a permanent organization to look out for the interests of that portion of the county of Washington lying in the vicinity of the Bladensburg road and the Benning road, a gathering that taxed the capacity of Geo. N. Holland's store at 15th and H streets northeast met last night and decided, by unanimous vote, to organize what will hereafter be known as the Northeast Suburban Citizens' Association. Mr. A. M. Raymond was chosen temporary chairman, and after the adoption of a constitution and set of by-laws Mr. Wm. H. Ernest was elected president; Hugh A. Kane, first vice president; Holland, second vice president; J. M. Wood, secretary, and August Stubener, treasurer. The prospective narrowing of Bladensburg road (work on which has just been begun) brought out a storm of opposition, which resulted in the appointment of Messrs, Hugh A. Kane, Samuel A. Coombs, Nicholas Auth, J. H. Ruppert, Walter Wilkins, Wm. H. Ernest and A. M. Raymond a committee to wait on the Commissioners, with the view of having their action in the with the view of naving their action in the premises rescinded. The committee was also instructed to urge the improvement of M street northeast from 28th street to the top of the hill at 20th street.

The reading of the statement caused a determination among the members to go after improvements for that long-neglected section. The following men enrolled their names as members of the new association: J. M. Wood, Wm. H. Ernest, John W. Brawner, Samuel A. Coombs, August W. Stubener, Hugh A. Kane, C. Phelps, Santus Auth, Geo. Holland was given a vote of thanks, and it was decided to meet next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the same place, and each succeeding week at the same time, until the association gets in thorough working order. ACCIDENT TO SHAMROCK II.
